Dear CEO's of Hershey,

I am Gigi writing from Blue Mountain Junior High School in Taiwan. <sup>56</sup>_____ a chocolate lover, I feel quite sorry for learning about the <sup>57</sup>b_____r but true story behind sweet chocolate. That is, cocoa child workers live a very hard life. They work long hours but get very low pay. Worst of all, they don't get a <sup>58</sup>c_____e to go to school. To fight for their rights, I ask that you should stop using child labor. My friends and I are trying some ways to make a <sup>59</sup>c_____e—sharing their stories <sup>60</sup>_____ others and stop buying chocolate from your company. I hope that there will be no more use of child labor in your company. What's more, it will be wonderful if you can even send these cocoa children to school.

Sincerely,
Gigi
